Course overview

Step into the community and welfare sector with a Certificate IV in Community Services. If you’re working or volunteering in the industry, this qualification will give you the added confidence and knowledge to offer support to people in need. With face-to-face workshops and exciting placement opportunities, you’ll gain experience and problem-solving skills that will prepare you for a long and rewarding career.

A Certificate IV in Community Services reflects the role of community service workers who design and deliver person-centred programs to individuals and groups. Equip yourself with the skills to offer support, advocacy and interventions to each client you meet and to the wider community.

With this online qualification, you will tackle challenges autonomously and discover effective ways to supervise and lead other workers in projects and teams. The daily tasks you work through may take place in a range of community service, casework or case management contexts. Put your time where it’s needed most and support your community.

Online

It is recommended that the students doing online are working or volunteering in industry. There will be face to face workshops once a fortnight rotating between campuses.

Bairnsdale, Traralgon and Warragul in class 2 days per week and students must be able to attend both days. There is placement attached to this course and it’s organised by the teachers.
